BRONX DEMOCRATS

Nominate Flynn and Healy by Petition and Will Carry Case to Courts.

On the advice of Coroner William J. Flynn, the Democrats of the Bronx yesterday afternoon obtained several thousand signatures to a petition placing Coroners William J. Flynn and Jerome Healey in nomination for Coroners of the Bronx.

Both men have served in that capacity for the past four years. Despite the fact that a bill was passed two years ago which wiped out the office of Coroner in all the boroughs of the Greater City, an ef-fort was made last night to serve these petitions upon the Board of these petitions upon the Board of Elections.

How the Democratic lenders of the Bronx hoped to get upon the elections records petitions placing men in nomination for an office which was wiped out by legislation was not explained, but the effort was made.

While the Bronx petitions were being circulated, managers for Coroner Timothy Healy of Manhattan were also instituting a similar move in

of Richmond. statement for The Evening World on

We have found a flaw in the law which which out the office of Coroner and created the title of Medical Ex-aminer," no said. "Aside from this flaw there is a grave question of the constitutionality of the bill. This move will provide the opportunity for test-

We were aware that the Board of Elections would not accept our petitions. Our next move will be to sue out a writ of mandamus. Then the test will be made."

The plan to make a test of the law originated some weeks ago, but it was decided to keep the matter under cover until the last moment so that those who might oppose the move would be caught unawares.

Our Regular Stocks Here's an instance where our Ready-to-Wear Apparel Department affords you an opportunity to practice economy of the very best kind. Norwithstanding the reduction in price, you may be assured that our exacting standards have not been lowered in the We particularly invite comparison on the part of women who have "shopped around" to see what is being offered elsewhere. They, more than all, will appreciate the excellence of what Greenhut's have to offer.

FOUR OF THE EIGHT STUNNING STYLES ARE ILLUS-TRATED.

Note their air of smartness, due to the excellence of workmanship put into these garments by specialists in their line.

The materials, all of excellent quality, embrace: VELOUR CLOTH, FINE KERSEY, CHEVIOT AND DOUBLE-FACED CLOAKINGS in Burgundy, Brown, Green, Navy or Black.

Attractive features emphasized in the new styles are the collars, which are extremely large and convertible. Equally good-looking, worn buttoned-up or open, some are of plush, others inlaid with or of self material. Many fancy new ideas in the way of pockets and belts, as well as button trimming, are successfully introduced.

All 'sizes for women and misses-and, in one model, extra sizes up to 51 inch bust.
